IMPORTANT

- Please let monitors know ASAP if a performer is absent.
- Performance sites will have monitors to keep schedule on time. Your name will be called. If you do not respond, monitors will proceed immediately to the next performer.
- Performers should report to their site 15 minutes prior to the scheduled time, and check in with the monitor.
- All performers are invited to participate as an audience for other performers; however it is expected that you will respect all performers and act accordingly.
- Groups for the Performing Arts Center should assemble at the steps to the Experimental Theatre. Keep noise level down.
- Instrument storage is available at registration table in Performing Arts Center lobby.
- Performers must leave promptly for next person on the schedule.
- Critique sheets will be forwarded to the school, private teacher, or adult listed on the student's application.
- Do not leave valuables unattended
- Stockton is a smoke free campus - NO SMOKING!

This Teen Arts Festival is an arts development project of the Atlantic County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

The staff of the Cultural Affairs Office would like to acknowledge and congratulate all the participants for their wonderful talents and creative spirit.

We also wish to acknowledge

Richard Stockton State College

for their enormous contributions to this program.

We share the belief that young people should be encouraged and given opportunities to pursue their creative talents and dreams.
